Pupil Voice

The Trust Pupil Voice gives the pupils the opportunity to share their views with both The Trust and the schools. Made up of two pupils from each school, the Pupil Voice follow a self-developed Pupil Voice Charter, which forms their ethos and structure which themselves and future ambassadors will work by. The ambassadors will represent their school and allow the pupils to share their views with the Trust and which will give them the opportunity to work together with pupils from the family of schools. The purpose of the Trust's Pupil Voice is:

- to represent pupils' views from the schools
- to reach out to and work with, the schools, The Trust and beyond
- to make one small idea part of one big decision for everyone and improve all of the schools within The Trust
- to see everyone as equal and be democratic
- to form an established pupil voice in each school, under The Trust
